Latest Rumor on Section 13 Dept.

We've had two rumors from reliable" sources this week. Number one concerns Hughes and Kaiser. Number two an unidentified stranger who spoke in hused tones about rocket bases. Wonder if we're going to have room for all these projects?

'Taint All Quiet On the Western Front Again

YUCCA VALLEY — Been so long a time since complaints have been made against foraging live stock that the wandering quadrupeds have almost become a ghost herd, but except for a few quickly rounded-up astray cattle and a couple that almost caused your editor to roll his car on the Pioneertown grade, it has been rather quiet; until last Thursday, that is.

Mrs. Cook, new resident at the Paradise Valley Tract, is in the mood for an old fashioned goat barbeque (that's where you shoot one of the neighbor's goats and have a barbeque in the hills). All of her beautiful new plants, shrubc and grape vines, recently planted were nibbled to nubbins by a stray herd of goats from a near-by ranch.

Of course Tacati Cypress printed on a nursery tag doesn't mean anything but salad to a goat, but to a home builder that is trying to beautify a desert lawn, that means money and hours of hard labor. It only suggests the observation that if some people can't afford to feed their live-stock they shouldn't be in the business.

Three lives, several injuries, wrecked autos and trucks, one load of window glass, mangled gardens, and slaughtered poultry is a rather high price to expect the people of a community to pay for the rather dubious value of a few straying steers, goats and dogs. That these astray animals have owners is quite beyond question; just try adding a bit of stray beef or goat meat to your deep freezer and see how quickly you are officially "admonished."

Spring is here and many hundreds of home builders are browzing through the seed catalogues, and just as many minds are wondering what's the percentage if stray stock is going to again tear up their gardens. We shamefully admit to handling this subject with a bit of questionable humor in past issues, but there's really nothing funny about snuffed out lives, cracked skulls, wrecked autos and trampled flower beds. High time somebody showed a little good faith and took some initiative towards making a peaceful place of our disappearing "western front." The day of "six" guns and law of the range is past; the ballot box is here to stay.

Registration for Kindergarten Required This Week

Last week meetings were held in Morongo Valley, Yucca Valley, and Josua Tree to determine the number of kindergarten children who will be enrolled in the new school in Yucca Valley next year. As a result of these meetings an insufficient number of kindergarten children were registered to warrant hiring a teacher and maintaining a kindergarten next year.

It is felt however that a number of parents with children of kindergarten age were unable to attend the meeting and as a result the count is not yet accurate.

It is planned to continue the survey for another week beginning Tuesday, March 7. Every parent of a kindergarten child is urged to register at one of the following places.

Morongo Valley: A registration sheet will be on the bulletin board by the post office.

Yucca Valley: A registration sheet will be in Fred Tunstalls 'Hi Way Garage' near the Post Office.

Josua Tree: A registration sheet will be in the Post Office.

Adequate bus transportation will be furnished all kindergarten children next year.

A child must be four years of age on or before March first 1950 in order to be eligible for kindergarten in September.

"Claudia" - - A Great Treat

MORONGO VALLEY — Claudia has been and gone. If you missed it, you missed a treat. The Little Theatre of Morongo Valley's second presentation of the season drew record crowds each night. In the title role, Jo Vissar gave a superb interpretation of the lovable rattle brain Claudia, supported by her understanding and tolerant husband David, played by Woody Vance, who in his subtle under acting gave a very convincing performance. Goldie Goodwin's portrayal of Claudia's mother Mrs. Brown showed her able understanding of character as well as acting ability. Emma Clay and Harry Walters as the housekeeper and gardener won the audience with their tender and sympathetic characterization. Others in the cast included Dave Griesbach as the man of the world who swept Claudia off her feet for a moment. Marian Weir as Daruschka, the Russian Opera Singer and Irene Tunstall as Claudia's sophisticated sister-in-law.

Tryouts for the next play "My Man Godfrey" will be held in the Moronga Valley Community Hall, Monday, March 13 at 7:30 P. M. The play will be presented Friday and Saturday, April 14 and 15.

REA Huddle Friday Evening

TWENTYNINE PALMS — Members of the board of directors of the Desert Electric Cooperation will meet in closed session Friday night at the home of Mr. C. F. Taylor of Twentynine Palms. This is a business meeting for directors only. The Desert Electric Cooperation is a corporation formed under the Rural Electrification Administration for the purpose of bringing electric power to home owners not now serviced by existing facilities.

Fair Red Cross Contributions

TWENTYNINE .PALMS — According to Mrs. Carolyn Watkins, local chairman for the Red Cross drive for this district, the contributions to the fund this year are going well, but are not quite up to the expected goal. Although most of these funds are for the National treasury to be used in disaster areas and relief, some funds are being used locally for the benefit of a family badly in need of care. Give NOW, your help is needed.

So. California Offers Variety To Visitors

LOS ANGELES—(All Year Club) Highlighted by the opening of 1,000,000 blossoms no the world's bgigest wistaria vine, March offers a month of the colorful flower events and festivals that the Eastern tourists like to find here, the All-Year Club reported today.

According to the roundup of the community travel promotion organization, Sierra Madre's Wistaria Festival starts about March 25 beneath the solid acre of delicate lavender blossoms, expected to be best in years because of the weather, and a display of small birds will be an added attraction.

More than 20,000 acres of blossoming almond trees in the Quartz Hill district of Antelope Valley form a fragrant backdrop for the

Veteran Exemptions

Veterans are again reminded that it is necessary to file their claim for exemption, between March 6th and the last Monday in May.

Deputy Assessor Vic Curran will be at Chas. Mitchell's Real Estate Office all day Thursday, March 16, for this purpose.

The following Thursday, March 23, at Yucca, at the office of Fred Storey.

Veterans filing for the first time must exhibit their honorable discharge or separation papers, also furnish legal description of all property owned, etc.

Plans "A" and "H" Bomb Haven In Desert

BURBANK — Desert lovers, over 70 strong, met last evening in the home of Mr. William Zeitz, 1251 Cleveland Rd., Glendale, to plan definite protection from "A" and "H" bomb attack. This group are all property owners in the 5-acre tract community of NEW HORIZONS, eight miles west of Joshua Tree, California — four miles off the Twentynine Palms Highway. The legal location of the section is Section 12; T-1N; R-5E; SB.

United States Government 5-acre tract leases have been issued to these people. An unusual undertaking is underway composed of scientists, engineers, professional men and women, army officers and lovers of the great American desert. Many committees were organized last night at this meeting. Probably the most important one was Committee "On Potentialities of Safe Existence in New Horizons

There's More Than One Yucca

YUCCA VALLEY — There are more than thirty-seven varieties of Yucca Plant and more than one geographical Yucca. The Yucca cut-off referred to in last week's Joshua Journal is near Needles, California, and is the new by-pass into Arizona which eliminates the dangerous and unnecessary drive over Oatman Pass.

It has apparently occurred to someone in authority, finally, that by following the railroad routes that steep hills can be eliminated. For years the realroads have been getting across country on no more that three per cent grades.

Who Says We're Soft

JOSHUA TREE — With all due respect to the pioneers who settled this country and have from time to time modestly admitted how they've walked miles for the mail or a sack of corn meal, we can still puff up the old chest and say, "we're still tough."

Mrs. Laura Barringer, one of our most active citizens, even though she is past seventy years (don't quote me, please), occasionally strolls down to Twentynine Palms for lunch, and back again. If you think that's as simple as it sounds, try it, friend it's only a thirty mile round trip.

Mrs. Barringer is a retired motion picture studio teacher. She has taught such child stars as Mickey Rooney — no wonder she has tough fiber.

"They're Off! Next May"

JOSHUA TREE — Yup, they'll soon be off, uh, next May, that is! All rabbits and coyotes, move over, the Annual Joshua Tree Turtle Races start in a couple of months and we don't want any drag job obstructing the race tract when Joshua Tree's desert dreadnaughts get under way.

The Turtle Race publicity committee which met in ultra secret session last Monday evening are expected to come up with some startling new ideas this year. As usual the grand champion of the Kentucky turtle races will be challenged to a show-down race, and as usual the Joshua Tree winner will accept a handicap of two full water flasks and a miner's pick.

The races will be held this year at the Sportsmen's Park, so that there will be more room to handle the crowd and concessions. The park also has a faster track.

To assist the publicity this year, good photos taken at previous races are badly needed. Any contributions would be greatly appreciated; send them to the Joshua Journal.

Members of the Publicity committee are Larry Gray, chairman; Mrs. Sarah Mitchell, Claude Irwin and Martel Ferris.

Professional Artists To Give Concert

TWENTYNINE PALMS — Sponsored by the Joshua Tree Community Association, a concert by a group of professional artists known as the Tujunga Musciale Company will be given at the Twentynine Palms Theatre here in March. This company is composed of a very fine group of young singers and musicians who are making a big name for themselves in professional music in Los Angeles and Hollywood. The critics have given these young performers rather high ratings and have prophesied outstanding careers for them. It is only through the courtesy of local friends,, Mr. and Mrs. Adger Hutchinson, that the services of these artists is being obtained.

Tickets for the concert, which will be given March 25th, are now on sale. There will be two performances, one at 7 p.m. and the second at 9 p.m. Get your tickets early.

Help Wanted

We desire to stress the fact that this paper is an organ designed to fulfill the needs of every person in this desert area from a news, advertising and pulic service standpoint. It is our dsire to make and keep loyal friends of everyone.

It is important that our comuunities be united as a whole in spite of any competitive interests that may tend to arouse criticisms of each other. It is this purpose that we strive to achieve with each edition of the Joshua Journal.

We are in a position to get the views and opinions of everyone and quite often find it necessary to act as personal emissaries of good will when criticism of others, and ourselves is encountered. We are all human and subject to many mistakes, and we still use the erasers on our pencil.

As a medium of news, opinions and ideas we are often pressed to print destructive criticism of the other guy. Sometimes they are just, but more often only the product of misunderstanding, and a good "round-table" can clarify things. With this in mind, the Joshua Journal places its self in the position of umpire, and ideas, remarks and criticism of a constructive nature we are more than glad to pass on. We need your help in building better communities, because this is your newspaper.

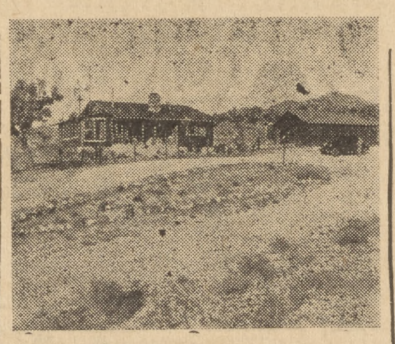
Greenhorn Gardner

BY RUTH HALE

"One day last week, it was my privilege to visit one of the most pretentious gardens in this area. They have the greatest variety of trees, shrubs, vines and roses that I have ever seen growing in a desert garden. While many things were touched by the frost, most of them will survive.

They used Tacati Cypress as a wind-break and these showed no damage from frost. On the fences surrounding the five acres, they have used climbing roses and these seemed in excellent condition. One thing that is necessary in growing the climbing roses is that they must have a trellis of some kind and that the long branches must be securely anchored or tied to keep them from whipping the wind. Honeysuckle was also growing on the fences; they used the ordinary kind, but there is another variety called Tecoma which has larger blossoms and probably will be just as hardy. Honeysuckle usually will bring the humming birds, for the nectar of the blossom is very tasty to our smallest of birds. Another vine which is fast growing and drowth resistant is the Rost de Montana, a plant of Mexican origin. This has a coral pink blossom and though it doesn't have as abundant foliage as the honeysuckle it will give color for many months. This vine is a perennial and though it may die down in the winter, the root is seldom damaged by frost.



THE JOSHUAS

Lowly Philosophy

By JUNE LeMERT PAXTON

DID WE, OR DID WE NOT?

A faint gleam comes in from the night-light in the bath room, otherwise the cabin is in darkness. The ticking of the mantle clock and the gurgling of the oil heater are the only sounds I can hear. Tonight I am too lazy to read. In fact, I am enjoying old memory pictures that persist in coming back time and again. They refuse to be forgotten!

Do you believe that you can carry over memories from one life-span to another? Were you ever homesick for a place or for a person you cannot fully recall. For years before I came to this Valley, which is not a true desert, I seemed to see a small hut on a far-away wind swept desert; a desert barren and lonely!

Again in memory I have been taken back more than five hundred years to a mid-western state. There beside rolling ground and a river I have seen the graves of many Indians. I believe that at one time I lived there. I believe that I was one of that tribe.

As the years go by I meet many people, but most of them remain strangers. Now and then, however, one comes into my life to stay. We both know, somehow, that we have met and were friends many years ago! Time passes, but these memory pictures never grow dim. To me they are a reality!

The Angel of Paradise Valley

The new Paradise Valley Tract, which is located four miles east of Yucca Valley on the Twentynine Palms Hi-way, is as near to heaven as Mrs. Cook, first resident, says anyone needs to be in this world. And she is proving it by making her new home a garden of eden with new plants and flowers for the coming spring. Rose seedlings, dwarf cedar, and many other small plants have been set in her shrubbery box and in the front yard. North of her house are more than two dozen grape vines, and with them will be some fruit trees.

Mrs. Cook, who still owns her home in San Marino says she's here on the desert to stay, and she wouldn't trade her little desert plot for all of the homes in San Marino. Mrs. Cook, who is called the angel of Paradise Valley by the people who are associated with the Paradise Trace is one of the most charming persons in the valley, and always has a welcome smile for visitors. She's even a bit of a philosopher and firmly believes that, and we quote, "man is the grandest institution in the world, especially when he's treated right." That porves she's an angel, even if it may prove her unpopular with the rest of her sex.

If there are any more people like Mrs. Cook in San Marino we'd like to have them out here. After all, a Paradise Valley full of angels isn't so very far fetched, and that's what Mr. Kranz, owner-developer of the "Beverly Hills of the Desert," says he's hoping to have.

There's a lot of high-powered talk going on about making films carrying a direct appeal to the kids, but with the aid of television, the kids in our neihborhood have solved it. Joshua Tree Community Ass'n.

Quite a large number of Citizens attended our last meeting, and lots of interesting subjects were discussed.

Mrs. Margaret Bair, on behalf of the Joshua Tree Women's Club drinking fountain at the northwest requested permission to erect a corner of the Community Park. The fountain is to be circular in shape, built of native rocks and minerals and quite an imposing structure.

It was generally agreed the fountain would be a wonderful addition to the Community Center, therefore the request was granted.

Federated Club News

JOSHUA TREE — The following excerpts are from a few of the letters of inquiry received this past week:

Tucson, Arizona — "I received one of your folders from a friend of mine . . . I am interested to know more about your place, as I have asthma . . . and please send me some folders as I have friends I would like to give and send some to . . ."

South Gate, Calif — "Please let me have further details . . . . I learned of your place from one of the employees of the company I work for."

Omaha, Nebraska — "Please send me information about your town and also about the Joshua Tree National Monument. Please send pictures if possible, as I am working on an article for publication about this territory."

So they go, on and on! The publicity work of the Federated Clubs is slowly, but surely, bringing results. These results will continue to increase as time goes on; therefore, this work must not be stopped through lack of funds!

Residents and business establishments, as well as non-resident property owners - - - if you have not yet done so, please help this good cause by sending your contribution to Federated Clubs, Joshus Tree.

Letter to the Editor

Mr. Mantel Ferris,
The Joshua Journal
Joshua Tree, California
Sir,

Your reference to Morongo Valley being located in "Joshua Desert" in the February 15 issue of Joshua Journal was discussed with displeasure at the joint meeting of representatives of the various civic organizations of Morongo Valley, on Sunday, February 19, 1950. We also note the same term used in the current (February 22) issue.

We do not feel that this term "Joshua Desert" is descriptive of of our community nor is it appropriate. We feel that the term is well applied to our neighbors to the northeast. However, we feel that the geographic name "Morongo Basin" is the proper name to use in reference to Greater Morongo Valley.

May we expect your cooperation in this matter?

(Editorial Comment:)

Our good citizens of Morongo Valley have a "beef," and perhaps rightly so. Personally, we've always favored the name Joshua Desert, not because of any prejudice that we publish the Joshua Journal in Joshua Tree, but because the name Joshua symbolizes this particular area of the desert. If we wish to be technical, Yucca Brevifolio is the correct name for the Joshua Tree, and if we adopted the name Yucca Desert it would symbolize all the varieties of Yucca plant that grow in all the communities that comprise the Morongo Mining District, including Morongo Valley. Incidently the Joshua Tree grows in Morongo Valley (in the extreme northeastern end, so the name could apply to Morongo Valley, but since its in-in the Joshut Desert, that settles habitants object to being labeled that.

Now to facts. At this early date we haven't had time for research on the subject, but do know that on official maps this area is listed as the Morongo Mining District, as for the name Morongo Basin and Greater Morongo Valley we question and will check on at the earliest possible date.

Comes the question. Should we refer to the area from Twentynine Palms to Morongo Valley as the Greater Morongo Valley, Morongo Basin, or Morongo Mining District, since Joshua Desert does not appeal to all citizens of this district? This question, of course, opens the subject to debate, as we do not intend to be responsible for adopting an official name. If anyone has what they believe to be a more appropriate name, we'd be glad to pass it around for comment.

And in conclusion. Selection of ates a controversy which we hope an official name for this area crecan be settled without lynchings the Editor. Our purpose in tossing this "bombshell" into the open is not to cause dissention, but bring about a closer cooperation between the communities of . . . (oops, what do I say now?) M. F.

Pioneertown News

Watch for big developments in Pioneertown before too long . . . Two hundred cars in one hour were counted coming into Pioneertown last Sunday (thanks, H. Allen) . . . Phil Krasne and Jackson Diggs were seen driving around P. T. this past week-end. . . . Lee Babbitt is the distinguished looking man behind the bar at the Golden Stallion . . . The Stallion ran out of food, almost this past week-end. The happy look on Henry Jew's face these days is because he's a free man, but that "ain't" all, he's got a cute new girl friend . . . Lee Yaphe earned a nice handful of "mad money" at the Stallion Sunday . . . You'd never believe that behind the "rusty" bush of "Shorty's" face is a very important looking man. When "Shorty" and Oley play pool, everybody wins but the pool table . . . Better stick to horses, Zeke, they don't furnish spurs and saddle-horn with cars . . . The Pioneertown Post Office will be ready for inspection the 16th of March.

"SHINE 'EM UP, FOLKS"

MORONGA VALLEY — March 19th to 26th is clean-up week in Moronga Valley, according to Don Carter, chairman of the "clean-up" committee. Plans for the campaign will be made this week at a special meeting.

Morongo Valley Notes

. . . .Mr. and Mrs.Milton Downhan and son, Robert, of Stevenson, Washington have just arrived for the climate. Mr. Downhan was gassed in World War I. Saw Pat O'Niel's add in the paper. Have tried all the deserts but this one. . . . Dr. Dwight Rawson and wife spent the week-end at their adobe cabin in the Annex; are making additions. (Dr. Rawson buys his Journal subscription four years in advance. Who's next, please?). . . . Mrs. Walter Sawers and son Walt Jr., were visitors from L. A. Dee Dee Arnold gave them a conducted tour of the Valley. . .Mr. Neirsbach, math teacher at Bell High School is building a house on section No. 15. . . .

New Blue Cross Benefits

March has been the month when "self-employed" individuals could enroll as members of the Blue Cross Hospital Service. Exact information regarding this service is not available at present at the district manager for this area writes "we are in the process of offering a new contract to self-employed people," expanding the services. So watch for the announcement in an early issue of the Joshua Journal. This service is invaluable to people living in our scattered community, with its dearth of medical facilities. I know from experience! Lon't forget a "self-employed" person has been defined as anyone who washes her own dishes! Membership in the Hospital Service of Southern California and membership in our Joshua Tree Community Ambulance Association are two major factors in maintaining peace of mind for those whose health is not too reliable.—M.W.E.

Charleville Aspires To Bench

SAN BERNARDINO — Oliver M. Charleville, attorney, who has been actively engaged in law practice here for twenty years, has announced his candidacy for the office of Judge of the Superior Court of San Bernardino County. Mr. Charleville has practiced law for over thirty-seven years, mostly in California. He has had extensive experience in dealing with all phases of legal problems and human relations, and has been very active in civic affairs.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON SUBJECT "MAN"

"Know ye that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture." The foregoing verse from Psalms is the Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Man" in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

"Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us?" declared Malachi. John reveals: "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life; and the life was the light of men."

Mary Baker Eddy says: "Man is the idea of Spirit; he reflects the beatific presence, illuming the universe with light. Man is deathless, spiritual . . . He does not cross the barriers of time into the vast forever of Life, but he coexists with God and the universe.

Faith full-fledged, soaring to the Horeb height, brings blessings infinite, and the spirit of this orison is the fruit of rightness, — "on earth peace, good will toward men." —Mary Baker Eddy

Hansen, of Yucca Valley, retired police photographer, has set up a photo lab in his home on Apache Trail and is planning on doing some professional work in commercial advertising, home portraits, and still photography.

Mr. Hansen was for many years a news photographer, movie still photograhper — made stills of Mary Pickford — and a "mug" photographer for the Los Angeles police department. He has been a resident of Yucca Valley for three years.

Sky Corral -- A Busy Place

YUCCA VALLEY—The Sky Corral, combination service station for planes and cars is a busy place these days. Almost everyday two or three planes land for servicing or business, and on week-ends a control tower is almost needed. Jules Boldizar and his wife keep the place open fourteen hours a day, and are about the two busiest people in Yucca Valley.

Jules, an ex-war-time pilot, concieved the idea of an auto-plane port when he was in the Air Force during the war. Since coming to Yucca Valley over three years ago, they have continually made improvements at the Sky Corral. Jules, president of the Chamber of Commerce, takes a lead in many civic affairs and continually sets a good example for cleanliness and landscaping around his place.

The Boldizars are among the most accomodating people in the valley and spend about half their time doing favors for others. The Sky Corral is a clearing house for almost everyone's messages, deliveries and is "headquarters" for the west end of Yucca Valley. Pioneertown folk call it the "outer office".

The Boldizars have big plans for the Sky Corral and hope that some day a large enough landing strip can be made to accomodate passenger transports and freighters.

Just to Remind You

The above artist's sketch of the proposed Baseline Highway that has been the dream of Moronga Basin citizens for many years is just a reminder that the plans for the cut-off to Parker Arizona are still in the making. Many persons who have contributed upwards of several hundreds of dollars in cash towards this enterprize have been asking lately, wha hoppen?

Latest information on the progress of the road reveals that the County will very soon make visual survey to ascertain the most feasable route through the Sheep Hole mountains to the east of Twentynine Palms. Following the visual survey recommendation will be in order for an instrument survey, then, we hope, the road follow that.

To the new reader of the Joshua Jornal, we briefly review for you the advantages of this road. It will save at least sixty miles between Los Angeles tnd Phoenix, and will take the traveler over a highland route to avoid the hot desert drving encountered further to the south. Eventually it is hoped that the Baseline Highway will come all the way on a nearly direct route from San Bernardino, opening up one of the most scenic and beautiful drives in the country.

Every time electrical facilities are extended to serve a new home, business, or industry a considerable investment in the form of poles, lines, plant equipment, and wages is necessary to provide those services. These facilities represent a long term investment in you. This investment is made possible by thousands of investors from all walks of life. It represents the investment of not just a corporation, but of neighbors and friends who have risked a portion of their savings in you—and in the future of the American way of doing business.

Arthur Haynesgot a good hatch from 2000 eggs, his poults are so good they take care of themselves (and we thought Dutton was on the job) . . The Visser Hatchery at Rippon, clips one wing on the young poults, this keeps them in the pens when they get big enough to fly. . . Mr. Bob Burns, visitor, who is a stationery salesman, AND a bachelor, may become another utrkey grower. Came to Sunfair to lose a cold.

Turkey Raisers Are Where You Find Them

SUNFAIR—Just to look at Mrs. Weygold you'd never believe she could handle a herd of turkeys single handed, but believe that's exactly what she is doing, and Mrs. Weygold had never been on a farm before coming to Sunfair. The idea was Mr. Weygold's that they should start a turkey ranch, but it was her that they should get away from the "big nasty city". So the Weygold's compromised. He's working as a design engineer at Montgomerys, and she's raising turkeys until Mr. Weygold can pull up stakes and settle down in Sunfair.

Don't think that it's an easy job to raise turkeys all by yourself; just ask the lady who does it. However she manages, with a little assistance during the rush periods and with Mr. Weygold's help on week-ends.

The Weygold Ranch will get its first poults this year on the 26th of March, thirteen hundred of them, and more to some later. That's a large order for one person, but not to a determined person. And believe it or not this amazing lady named all her turkeys last year. Well, it just goes to prove what we've said before, that anyone with superior intelligence and lots of hard work can successfully raise turkeys.

SUNFAIR

The new community of Sunfair is a group of small ranches devoted to the business of growing Turkeys — Located six miles Northeast of the town of Joshua Tree.

A NEW IDEA IN RANCHES —
Ranches are surveyed into parcels of 1 1/2 - 3 - 6 and 10 acres — All ranches sold are served with WATER, ELECTRICITY, and PAVED ROADS.

Our Third Year

This is our third year growing turkeys commercially at Sunfair —We have proven this high desert location is as near perfect as it is possible to obtain for the development of the turkey industry.

Thirty Ranches

Last year there were nineteen ranchers growing turkeys at Sunfair — The year before there was only seven; This year there will probably be at least thirty turkey ranches in full operation.
